PLAYBOY'S BOOK OF LINGERIE

PLAYBOY PRESS

is the season to be jolly. 'Tis also the season to be busy. Starting with Halloween on the last day of October and ending with New Year's Day, it seems nonstop party time. Everyone is on the run from morning to midnight. Our holiday message is addressed to late shoppers, the ones who jam stores on Christmas Eve. Make your life simpler and your loved ones happy. Stroll into a department store or a specialty boutique sometime early in December. Buy matching paisley robes for Mom and Dad, silk shorts for the kid brother, and then go crazy with all that sheer, sexy intimate apparel for your special someone. They'll love it, you'll love it, and a tension-free Merry Christmas will be had by everyone. Cover girl Christine Côté wraps up a bountiful year filled with six spectacular issues of Playboy's Book of Lingerie and invites you back for more in 1993. Happy holidays to all.

Acknowledgments: Lingerie provided by Adagio, Vancouver, British Columbia, 77; Hanky Panky, New York, 32; Ouch Boutique, Chris Di Pietro, designer, Miami, 86. Props and shooting locations provided by Greg Autry, Bel Air, CA; Huff Furniture, Atlanta; Dr. Mark Karalla, Bel Air, CA; Larry and Lisa Krassner, Atlanta; Tony Mack, Los Angeles; Marrika Näkk, Los Angeles. Many thanks to all for their cooperation.

Christine Coté recently had the best experience of her life—ten weeks of modeling in Asia. She loved the exposure to new cultures obtained through living and working with people from other countries: "I never would have learned so much if I'd just been a tourist. I stayed in Japan and Korea long enough to pick up a some of the languages. I got some great recipes, too." A former vintage-lingerie store manager, she's an unabashed fan of fine intimate apparel.

To celebrate the Christmas season, Lisa Canada (above), Tera Tabrizi (right) and Victoria Bowman (far right) are creatively packaged in festive colors.

Dressing for the holidays, Kerri Kendall (left) selects an animal-print camisole, symbolic of the wild days and nights to come. Lorissa McComas (above) is brilliant in a fiery teddy. Kelli Slattery (below) exhibits panache in a silk chiffon nightgown. Brittney Raché (overleaf), in glitzy lingerie, has star power to rival Italian tree lights.

With a decorator's instinct, Wendy Kaye (below), in a delicate pink ensemble, knows how to make a house
a home. Corinna Harney

(right) wraps herself in a corset and designer sheets.
Deborah Driggs (overleaf), in a golden girdle, claims having the Midas touch.

Tamika Sherman (above) has preserved her summer garden. She has enough dried flowers to make gifts for all her friends. Being able to work in bra and panties is a treat. Carrie Jean Yazel (left) gets her tweeds out of storage. Her girdle-garter belt is the latest in lingerie innovations.

Holidays are feasts for all the senses. Christmas carols are an accompaniment to every type of activity, heaps of sugary confections tempt palates and bright colors dazzle the eyes. Hollie Gregory (above) strikes a jazzy note in a cami. Tammara Wheeler (below) adds spice to the scene in a tasty outfit of netting and ruffles. Karen Foster (right) pulls out all the stops, creating maximum sensory overload in a shiny petticoat and red silk stockings.

Lovely lingerie can be the start of something wonderful. Cristy Thom feels both rich and famous when she wears this fabulous satin slip trimmed in lace. It puts her in a gala mood, ready for the next great adventure.

Christmas in the country is a nostalgic fantasy for many, but Anna MacDowell (above) makes the fantasy come alive. Under workaday denim, Hollie Gregory (right) flashes a camisole-bikini combo. Kaylin Brookes (far right) slips out of her snowflake panties. Isabelle Fortea (overleaf) seems luminescent in a bespangled teddy.

During a break in the action, Kelley Lehmann (left) lazes about in a dressing gown. Tami Reneé (above) spends her time off in a kimono, eating popcorn and catching up on movies. Jacqueline Sheen (below) has been done in by her frenetic shopping. Wearing a G string, she stops for a short respite before going back into the fray.

He knows if you've been bad or good, so be good for goodness' sake! A brilliant study in a silk robe, Jillianne Michaels (left) gets an A+ in sensual awareness. It doesn't get much better than Kelly Jackson (above); she always earns top marks in classic intimate apparel.

Night and day, these women define sophistication. Carrie Jean Yazel (above) is going to make an appearance at a cocktail party before she goes to the theater. She'll wear black lingerie. Tina Martin (left) chooses a softly shaped teddy for ease of movement during a long day at the office.

Invited to a Bogart theme party, Diana Burnett (above) and Christina Leardini (below) have decided that fundamental things apply: They wear basic black and white. More sought after than the Maltese falcon is elegant intimate apparel like Donna Barron's (right). It's OK to whistle at Wendy Hamilton (overleaf) and her robe.

Wish lists often show
lingerie as a favored item, but women still replenish their own wardrobes. This is the best season for finding interesting apparel. Iris

self to a corselet. Tamika Sherman (above) treasures
a gold-and-black ensemble.

Count on a few hearts to beat a little faster when they see Tiffany Thompson (above left) in traditional Christmas green. Don't count on Valentina (above right) or Elise Antcil (right) to slow down pulse rates, either. Whether it be a demure teddy or polka-dotted bra and panties with a bow in back, their lingerie will leave you breathless.

We wrote earlier that interesting lingerie is to be found in stores at this time of year. Let's add spectacular, as well. Examples: Park Morgan's beaded outfit (above) and Stacey Canchola's understated bodysuit (right).

Cathy Dzik (above) selected this holiday robe because it reminded her of Christmas gift wrap. Christina Tonelli (below) was inspired by cranberries strung on a tree when she chose her bra and panties. Brittany York (right) and Kerri Hoskins (overleaf) are among the group that cannot think about Yuletide until after Thanksgiving.

A private viewing of Lisa
would have an audience on its feet shouting, "Encore, encore!" Double layers of chiffon in bonbon colors float around Tami Renée (above) like mist. This garment will fill her dreams with visions of sugarplums.

The longest night of the year doesn't faze Terri Lynn Doss (above). She tries on silk pajamas, the essence of opulence. Cathy St. George (right) is caught in a web of moonbeams. Wahlea Bradley (far right) is going to wear lounging pajamas at her weekend dinner party.

Rushing around is exhausting—so much shopping, so many parties, so little time. What's a girl to do? The answer is to schedule some evenings to be spent alone, totally relaxed in uninhibiting intimate wear. Amy Weber (left) puts them on her calendar. Lisa Saxton (above) and Ashlie Rhey (below) grab quiet moments when they can.

In a liberated bodysuit, Renée Tenison (left) elects to campaign for peace on Earth and joy to the world. Physically conservative and environmentally responsible might describe Janet Lois's teddy (above). Jeanette Lumpkin (below) shows patriotic tendencies in her preference for red, white and blue in lingerie and decor.

Glowing like the rising sun in a clear winter sky, Keri-Anne (above) looks forward to the shortest day of the year. After that, daylight begins to advance. The solstice is just another reason for Kelly Jackson (right) to love this season. She's jubilant about a bodysuit cut high on the hip.

Sleigh bells ring and Ashlie Rhey (left) glistens in a bustier. Dona Speir (above) gives thanks for a generous bouquet of roses that are color-keyed to her gorgeous lingerie. Still wearing her bra, dreamy Tina Martin (overleaf) looks as if she may have overdone it a bit on the party circuit.

Life begins to resemble a three-ring circus when women have to juggle jobs, shopping and celebrating. But it's necessary to keep things under control and not go flying off the high wire. Tina Bockrath (left) could tame lions and tigers in this ciré teddy. Regina Cheng (above) doesn't clown around when she puts on her bikini.

Let the winter games begin. When it comes to judging intimate apparel, it's a sure bet that Margie Murphey (left and above) will never find herself behind the eight ball.

Christina Shei (above) and Julie Clarke (right) are going out to the woods to find the perfect Christmas tree. Lumberjack shirts are proper outerwear, but they choose lace for innerwear. Women have a need for luxurious and delicate lingerie under denim, corduroy, leather or velvet.

Balls abound at this time of year. Shawna David (left) is sure to be the belle in sequins and lace. Diana Burnett (above) should get everyone's attention when she shows up in vinyl. After the dance, Lisa Bangert (overleaf) kicks off her shoes, too tired to let go of her corselet.

Buttons and bows are rarities in the Nineties, but satin and lace are never out of fashion. Coreen Busché (above) goes shoulder to toe in red. Bobbi Fade (below) combines the two fabrics for a great looking teddy. Melanie Good (right) has satin trim on her lace coverup. Monique Biffignani (overleaf) wears a glossy bra and thong.

If we were being forced to categorize this intimate apparel, we'd have to call it wild, wilder, wildest. Cindy Margolis (above) lounges in a midnight lace ensemble. Louise Payne (below) has the sheerest corset with the most elaborately embroidered front panel. Gina Cabero (right) struts in her "Me, Jane. You, Tarzan" bra and bikini.

Burnished satin enhances the radiance emanating from Brandi Brandt (above). Long, lean and luscious Laurie Carr (right) does wonders for a stretch bodysuit.

Everybody's up for New Year's Eve. Lori Jo Hendrix (above) soon will be dressed in more than a bustier. Meko Dawn (below) may be late, but she knows what lingerie she'll wear. Pamela Stein (right) has been working on her resolutions. Fawna MacLaren (overleaf) plays Auld Lang Syne and joins in a rousing "Happy New Year!"
